Relēvia®

(PANTRYPSINOL 1485MG)

RELEVIA® is a comprehensive formula consisting of enzymes, herbs and bioflavonoids designed to naturally support your body's inflammatory response.

Whether you suffer from occasional pain or just overworked your muscles on the weekend, RELEVIA® can help your body respond to pain and swelling safely and effectively. The proprietary enzyme blend in RELEVIA® contains pancreatin, papain, bromelain, trypsin and chymotrypsin and is designed to support your body's natural response to inflammation.†

As we age, our bodies lose the ability to produce systemic enzymes. RELEVIA® can replenish these enzymes, allowing your body to heal itself and provide effective long term joint support. When taken on an empty stomach it is believed that enzymes will help manage inflammation by supporting healthy blood flow to the irritated area. Over 40 years of scientific research and evidence indicates that systemic enzymes are an effective arthritis treatment, and it is widely used for inflammation relief.†
